MILLION DAMAGE DONE BY HURRICANE.

(By the Associated Press—A.M.)

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 15.—Damage of fully $1,000,000, including the partial demolition of one town, was done by the hurricane on the coast of Central America, which was reported by a brief wireless message received here last night.

Wireless and cable advice today to the United Fruit Company say that probably no loss of life occurred.

The hurricane appeared to be central near Bluefields, on the east coast of Nicaragua. It swept in from the sea, its first fury striking Little and Great Corn Islands, which were swept bare of vegetation and their topography even altered by the waves.

On the mainland, the storm's damage was confined mostly to a path about thirty miles wide, in which banana and rubber crops were destroyed and plantation houses blown down.

Great damage is reported from Rama, a town on the coast about forty miles from Bluefields. Port Limon, Costa Rica, also suffered damage.

Late dispatches say that among the heavy losers from the hurricane were the Manhattan Rubber Company of New York, which has a plantation with 100,000 rubber trees, and the Waliron rubber and banana plantation, owned in Toronto, Canada. The Bluefields Steamship Company lost a dock.

SIXTY MILLIONS IN SCRAP OF PAPER.

Codicil to Will of William Weightman Produced in Court—Contest Begun Nearly Two Years Ago Hinges on the Discovery.

(By Direct Wire to the Times.)

P HILADELPHIA, Oct. 15.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Victorian Sarah's play, "A Scrap of Paper," was re-enacted in real life with the Orphans' Court as a stage today, and the outcome of the drama was the indefinite continuance, virtually the ending, of the Weightman will case involving the ownership of $60,000.

It was Mrs. Annie Weightman, who held "the scrap of paper," she was who proved that she could say, with the leading actress in the play, "I have the documentary evidence."

Mrs. Walker held the bit of paper in her fingers, and still holds it, but Mrs. Sabine Jones Wister, who contested the will, got a glimpse of it, which seemingly was enough. Immediately, however, came the postponement of the case was arranged. It is said that no such theatrical episode has been witnessed before in the local courts.

VAGUE HINTS OF CODICIL.

For some months, during the preparation of the trial of the abnormally fought contest involving so many millions, there have been vague hints from Mrs. Wister's side about a suppressed codicil to William Weightman's will. Nothing definite about this codicil was ever known by either Mrs. Wister or her lawyers, but it was whispered that Mrs. Walker had concealed the important paper.

This charge against Mrs. Walker was on no never heard, but it now appears that the woman was only waiting for trial.

Mrs. Walker smarted under the attack made upon her during the trial, but her own counsel. That she did smart under the strictures made upon her was evident enough when she said: "The Weightman case will never be compromised. I cannot afford to wait for trial."

DAVIS REVEALS IT.

Edward T. Davis was on the stand when "the scrap of paper" was first revealed. Davis was twenty-six years in the employ of William Weightman, who accounted the enormous fortune. He rose to be Weightman's private secretary and took the management of his employer's many real estate investments.

As attorney to Mrs. Wister, Mr. Simpson Jr., who questioned Davis, also had him to know of any paper referring to Mrs. Wister, which Weightman had made and signed subsequently to the will of August, 1898, as offered by Mrs. Wister, the last one drawn up by her father, William Weightman.

"I do not know of such a paper," answered Davis. Mr. Weightman had the man, his hand, to be retained to him about Mrs. Wister. Of course, he had spoken of her many times, but I mean that this was the only time he had ever said anything in his presence. He said on the occasion that Mrs. Wister had offended him, that she wanted to marry him before she married Mr. Wister."

"What else did you say?" asked Mr. Simpson.

"That is a private matter," he replied.

At this juncture the witness was threatened with contempt of court for refusing to answer a question to a witness in the will, and Simpson, counsel for Mrs. Wister, asked him what money he had received from Mrs. Walker after the death of her husband.

His first answer was that he received his salary up to the time the firm was taken over by another company. Then he admitted receiving $500 a year, but with the firm, for a total of $800. Other employee's gifts were at the same rate. Following this, after much coaxing by attorneys, he admitted receiving a present of $500 from Mrs. Walker.

"What else did you say?" asked Mr. Simpson.

"That is a private matter," he replied.

At this juncture the witness was threatened with contempt of court for refusing to answer a question to a witness in the will, and Simpson, counsel for Mrs. Wister, asked him that he was in the hands of the court, and he was instructed to answer.

Hopper thereupon said:

"Well, if I am compelled to answer, I received from Mrs. Walker $100,000."

This answer caused a sensation and

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

(By Direct Wire to the Times.)

C HICAGO, Oct. 15.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Weather conditions to day throughout the country were temperate, as shown by a "sat" map tonight. A decided high area, practically covering the entire northeastern and eastern country, is preventing the arrival of a rainy low from the southwest, which has threatened an invasion of Chicago territory for the last two days. Maximum temperature today was 64 deg., minimum 57 deg. Middle West temperatures:

Henry O. Tanner, a negro artist, was today awarded the N. W. Harris prize of $500 for the best painting at the nineteenth annual exhibition of American paintings, which will open Wednesday at the Art Institute. At the private view, the Art Committee of the Institute carefully went over the large number of paintings hung, and the decision on Tanner's was unanimous.

PREFERRED FRIENDS' COMPANY.

Because, after twenty-six years of married life, Mrs. Annie G. Ordway preferred the company and companion of a number of "congenial spirits," handed together in a society, rather than that of her husband (and

"NU WETHER" SPELLING.

(By Direct Wire to the Times.)

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Oct. 15.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Through an official communication received here today by the Milwaukee Weather Office, it is learned that Director Willis A. Moore at Washington will insist that every member and employee of his bureau must use the reformed spelling adopted by the President. All weather forecasts, crop reports and similar publications, beginning today, will be written under the new rules.

MRS. GRIFFITH ARRESTED.

Mrs. Mary Griffith, who lives on Grand boulevard, one of the most aristocratic residence sections of the South Side, and who claims to be the daughter of the late Dr. A. Reeves Jackson, one of the founders of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, was arrested this afternoon on the charge of obtaining money by false pretense.

Mrs. Griffith was then called. She testified that her father's first will was executed in 1884. She never saw it, but understood it divided the estate in three parts, one-third each to herself and her two brothers. When she heard her father had changed his will in her favor, she asked him to approach an attorney, and he was assured that it was perfect, it should stand as originally drawn.

Drainage Convention Meets in Oklahoma City.

GET THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—An express train carrying 190 members of the Eastern Star, who are in San Francisco in this city, ran into a number of freight cars standing on the track of the Coast line, between the 10th and 11th streets from San Mateo at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The train was running at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour at the time of the collision, and through the passengers and train crew were considerably shaken up.

The engine and the special and one of the freight cars were wrecked. Engineer Windus applied the brakes as soon as he saw the danger, and remained at his post.

The passengers were transferred to another train and brought to this city, where they were left to Los Angeles at 12:30 this morning.

Corra Hickman of Tropic, one of the high officials of the Eastern Star, who was on the train, told with a number of local people who were on the train, that all except uninjured.

The engineer said my passengers are safe, and the engine out of the wreckage.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 15.—A call has been issued for the National Drainage
Conference, to be held at Oklahoma
City, Okla., from December 5 to 6.
Gov. Pardes is requested to appoint ten delegates to represent this State.The drainage conference is of vital importance to the section of the country and it is probable that the delegates will be named at once. Owing to the fact that Gov. Pardes is out of the State, Acting Gov. Alden Anderson may name the representatives.

By a unanimous bench, the State Supreme Court, sitting in Los Angeles yesterday issued a writ of mandamus to compel Secretary of State C. P. Curry to place on the general ballot the name of D. C. W. Nutting of Treks as the Democratic candidate for the State Board of Equalization from the Third District, and the name of C. M. Haby for Clerk of the Supreme Court.

Curry had refused to place the names of the candidates on the ballot on the ground that their certificates of nomination were filed too late. Two minimums of time are prescribed by law, one of forty days before the election, and one of thirty days. The first applies to the filing of the nomination of nomination where the nomination is made by a convention, and the latter where the nomination is made by electors.

The court held that in this case, where the men nominated by the convention withdrew, the certificates of nomination were filed too late. This is the first time that the point has been raised, and the decision establishes a precedent.

This action was brought through a petition of Frank H. Gould, representing the Democratic State Central Committee. The decision of the court is final, and Curry has no further recourse.

This is the first time that the point has been raised, and the decision establishes a precedent.

R. H. Steamer was nominated by the Democratic convention for the State Board of Equalization, and J. E. Rainey for Clerk of the Supreme Court.

Both these men withdrew, in which the court held that the nomination was received by Secretary of State Curry, he refused to put the names on the ballot, as they were filed until October 6, later than the minimum of forty days, but inside the thirty-day limit.

The court held that the injunction proceedings before the injunction, proceeding before Sacramento Judge Shields of Sacramento county, but by consent of both parties the action was transferred to the District Court of Sacramento. Counsel for Appellants refused to consider the matter, and passed it on to the State Supreme Court, where it was brought by a petition for writ of habeas corpus.

RECORD OF CASES.

The Supreme Court of the State opened its annual October term in the chambers in the Bullard Block yesterday, with the following judges sitting: Lucien Shaw, F. M. Angelotti, M. C. Sloss, T. B. McFarland, W. G. Loring and F. W. Henshaw. Chief Justice H. H. Smith, who was present, and C. W. Nutting, who presided over the court.

The court faced a calendar of eighty-nine cases, which is the record for a single term. Court sat in session daily until October 22, and adjourned later, in order to hear all 260 cases.

Most of the session was occupied with motions, and only the Nutting case.

The first case listed, for today is one of the two criminal cases before the court. It is an old San Francisco case, in which the attorney for Joseph Clark ask for a rehearing on technical grounds. Clark was convicted in 1898 of murder, for killing Joseph P. Cross, and the question is whether the evidence did not justify the verdict.

The other criminal case is the one of William Kauffman, convicted of murder in the second degree in 1902, for the killing of his wife, in the San Francisco case.

Kauffman had many aliases, and there is some doubt whether or not another man, bearing the same name as one of Kauffman's aliases, did not commit the crime.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.

There are several local cases of more than ordinary interest, and one of these is set for an early hearing. This is the case of the Farmers and Merchants' Bank against the City of Los Angeles, for recovery of tax paid under protest.

The bank has on deposit city funds to the amount of $252,997.50, which is kept separate, but upon which it was taxed $425.96.

The bank brought suit to recover the tax, and the city, in the lower court, the city agrees.

Another case of great local interest is that of the City of Los Angeles against the Los Angeles Independent Gas Company, in which the city demands that the company be ousted from its franchise and pay a fine of $5000. The city contends that the company has the use of its privileges in using the streets.

Susan A. McLean has appealed her case against "Lucky" J. Baldwin, who was to be tried in the state court. This is to quiet title to about ten acres of land along the old Mission road. The case presents a very unusual question of law.

The other case of considerable interest, that of Col. Griffith J. Griffith to gain the custody of his son, now 18 years old. Griffith is in prison for shooting his wife at the time he was committed, the custody of the boy, then 15 years old, was given to Mrs. Griffith. Griffith has resided at St. Louis, La., and wrote to fight his case, the ground that he was not served with papers in the case, and did not have a proper opportunity to defend himself.

The other cases are largely those of persons having damage suits against railway corporations.

Oct. 15.—"We have this far no reason whatever to believe the Liberal leaders are other than honest in their declarations that they are not seeking office," said Gov. Mason. "In this case this evening, it is noted that the representations of the leaders in their meetings, all referred to legal action. There had been many comments regarding Mayors, and references to these officials as ousted on the basis of their malfeasance. However, had been presented to the Governor for consideration. Mason reiterated that there was no sign, or attempts at any time, to the question of appointment which is held in the state for the time being. Gov. Mason is considering the appointment of a commission on new laws, another civil service, and a third to hear claims for damages arising from the administration of laws probably as the most fundamental necessary to the government of the state. When these laws have been presented to the Governor, they will be presented to the Legislature.

Gov. Mason said he had no evidence that Congress would assume power after a general election had been held.

He said civil service commissioners of three American cities in the department of Washington, D. ## BOXERS READY FOR BIG BOUT.

Fight Fans Will See Good Work Tonight.

O'Brien Agrees to Put Away Cooley and Tremble.

Battle Delayed Because of Republican Rally.

Jack O'Brien is on edge to whip Fred Cooley and Jim Tremble within twenty rounds in the same ring before the Pacific Athletic Club tonight. Cooley and Tremble are also in good condition and have filled themselves with the determination to "do or die." They have the chance of their lives to make good, and incidentally they have the biggest job on their hands ever undertaken by two amateurs.

O'Brien will enter the ring for his first bout until 9:30 o'clock, in order to allow the sports who so desire to attend the Republican political rally. Manager McCarey postponed the time of staging the big bout one half hour, on request. In order to give the sports in the arena something to take up their attention during that time McCarey has added another preliminary. Charles Robinson, the clever young press reporter, has wanted another crack at Young McGovern ever since the latter put him away in one round two or three months ago, and will be given the opportunity. The other preliminary is between Al Godfrey and Bill Gaines. Both are six-round affairs.

Tickets began selling yesterday morning, and before night a large number had been disposed of and many more were made available. It appears as though a record house will be on hand to witness O'Brien's initial appearance here. Jack made a ten-strike when he got off that great play in the ring before the crowd. Burns and Flynn fought. He made himself solid with the fight fans then, and hundreds will come to see him box just on that account.

O'BRIEN THIS ATTRACTION.

The fight public does not expect to see a high-class battle, as compared with a championship affair, but the sports here to see O'Brien will get a fine and workmanlike job in putting two men away in one night. Cooley is practically unknown here, but that Toledo has given him newspaper prestige and the deep-hearted malar stirs him to the bone. Gaines assures a red-hot bout. Many Angelinos are harboring a belief that Jim Tremble will have a whole deck of cards up his sleeve in the second stanza. They fear that with his victory from his grueling battle with Cooley, and that in such a condition he cannot do enough damage to put the doughty contractor away. On the other hand, Tremble has the advantage of one of the haymaker rights which he has in his repertoire and suddenly upset O'Brien's championship claims. In that case they would be matched for an even go.

The amateur O'Brien must overcome a lame one, and the two divide between his herculean task and the desire to see him perform. With such men as Cooley and Tremble he should be in for a hard time. The other fighters have one of the best repertoires in the business, and when Jack out, but the betting is all on his ability to put both out in the ten rounds assigned to each. Jack must accomplish this task to draw in the money. The public, however, according to Manager McCarey, states that what "Uncle Tom" says can always be depended upon. Betting is about even on whether or not he will be put out, and many bettors are betting that the case may be, will stay the limit.

Fred Cooley is 24 years old today, and Jack O'Brien promised him his birthday present in the ring tonight. He is made good, and the two men first met in McCarey's office the day of Cooley's arrival, they had not seen each other since the Toledo affair. Cooley was expecting a storm, but O'Brien came in like a lamb on a June day, whatever temper may have been raging inside. It was during the badague that followed that O'Brien suggested he had a present in store for Cooley.

FIGHTERS FINISH WORK.

ANOTHER fighter put the finishing touches on his training yesterday. Cooley will come up from Santa Monica tonight. O'Brien and Tremble have done their training in this city. Each claims he is in good condition. O'Brien has trained more for speed than anything else. He counts on his cleverness to keep out of harm's way. He does not believe in getting to him with a punishing punch. On the other hand, Cooley and Tremble are training for the express purpose of going the rounds and keeping up the pace. They have devoted time and a punch, for they must rely on getting in an occasional hard one to win.

Three of the four bets have been made to even odds. O'Brien wants to settle with Cooley for that stay punch delivered at Toledo. Cooley may be forced to go through the circling-hands. Gaines and Godfrey desire to settle on a standing feed. If the men toe the scratch it should be a fight from the moment the first round. Robinson wants to regain the lost laurels which departed from him after the promotion administered by McCarey. Tremble is the only one who has no desire to settle, but he may be forced to work up one in the first round or two, though he is too good natured for that. The only time he developed a desire to settle was when he fought Indiana Joe, and then he short lived. For one could see his actions that he hated to hang on punishment when he had the redskin helplessness.

O'Brien weighs between 188 and 190. Cooley weighs 175, having gained nine pounds in training. Tremble weighs 185. The men are very evenly matched all around.

Gaines and Godfrey have a side bet of $250. Gaines will be heavier by twenty or thirty pounds, but Godfrey claims to be able to offset this by hard hitting and ability to avoid punishment.

Local enthusiasts have been able to see something of O'Brien's work by the moving pictures shown near the Angeles Hotel but few nights. They were taken during the trials for the battle with Crisp for the championship of England.

FOOTBALL MANAGER HERE.

Ray Galloway of the University of California Team Visits Pomona College.

Ray Galloway, the manager of the University of California Rugby football team, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday to confer with the Pomona College management in regard to making arrangements for the game of Rugby Fighting attitude sometimes assumed by Philadelphia Jack O'Brien, which sorely puzzles his opponents.

FINE SHOOTING OPENING DAY.

Ducks and Quail Abound Beyond Hopes.

Reports from Burned District Very Encouraging.

Golden West Club Claims the Record Bags.

Surprisingly good bags of game were made yesterday, the opening day of the hunting season, despite the fact that the weather was not as good as which ranged last week. Reports from the thirty-six gun clubs located in Southern California between Newport and Santa Monica say that the sport is fully as good as last year, and that limit bags of duck and quail were scored early in the day.

INTEREST AWAKENED.

Hunters say that the number of ducks in the various shooting grounds made the game "explosive," and that the gunning in the marshes is the rare sport yesterday. Despite reports to the effect that much game was destroyed in the Newhall mountain district during the forest and brush fires, several hunters bagged the quail limit during the morning.

Los Angeles gun stores were head-quarters for throngs of sportsmen early yesterday morning, but most of those intending to go to the hunting grounds waited Saturday and "bagged up" early yesterday. At dawn the crack of guns began, except in such places where restrictions are placed on early shooting because of the helplessness of the ducks before the light of day.

Work for men and dogs was hot, except in the few marshes. Quail were scattered in the woods, but most of those gunning in the marshes had no time to score. Yet it is scarcely fair to depend on the "dope" in an independent manner, as the Occidental men made out in the High School which detracts no whit from the merits of the latter, as they have made an excellent showing so far this year.

U.S.C. the sentiment is that Occidental has been taught a lesson which she should profit by. Sundry causes of dispute have induced encouragement to the students, but the discomfiture of the Presbyterians may cause better relations for the Methodists to hold their late opponents cheap but feel that they were very much improved and will really to make a good showing during the remainder of the season.

INTERCAMPUS FINE WORK.

Probably the best man of the Berkeley freshmen was Roderick Burnham, the captain. He is a son of Maj. F. R. Burnham, D.S.O., of San Francisco. He is a member of the High School boys held U.S.C. down to no score. Yet it is scarcely fair to depend on the "dope" in an independent manner, as the Occidental men made out in the High School which detracts no whit from the merits of the latter, as they have made an excellent showing so far this year.

U.S.C. is elated over her victory.

The players jumped into the practice with renewed spirit, yes and enthusiasm for the week and events following are being cussed with enthusiasm. Next Thursday the freshmen will play off the tie in Friday the freshmen and sophomores will play off the tie in Saturday the second team will be sent to Santa Monica for a match with the High School team there. Next week will be an exciting game between the two teams. The general of the first team players are pleased and this game will be hard fought.

The Alumni Association has offered two prizes, which will consist either of medals or cups to be given to the men making the longest punt and the longest drop kick. These will be considered in the middle of November and will stimulate the boys toward doing their best in these features of the game.

The freshmen has received a letter from Whiteman stating that the intercollegiate cross-country run will be held about Thanksgiving. As Whiteman is not playing football she should not be too anxious about football.

Were the cross-country run to be held nearer Christmas, U.S.C. would be glad to take part.

A large part of the success of the club is due to the good condition of the marshes, as the keepers turned the water in early, and the shooting was permitted on the grounds and that one of the contests was played on the marshes.

They appealed to the managers to take a stand against these two men.

Rev. Johnston Myers preached on "A Home Run," at Immanuel Baptist Church, and declared among other things that "if the same spirit which moved with the same passion as has been witnessed last week in Chicago, were manifested in the church there would not be a 'skeptic'

Berkeley Football Rooters Tender Support.

Indications Point to Death of the Old Game.

Players Working Hard for Stanford Contest.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 14.—When Rugby football was introduced into the University of California at the beginning of the present season, little interest was shown by the student body, while the devotees of intercollegiate football felt that a game was being thrown upon them and foreign to them. Consequently Rugby was not given a fair trial. Meanwhile the rudiments of the game have been learned and those who have followed it claim they would not give it up for the new code. The game of the University was presented. It seems almost certain at the present time that at the end of the two years trial allowed Rugby by Stanford and Berkeley intercollegiate football to remain on the field. The Rooters are to meet the opposition, which is to be the old game.

was a wonder hundreds of people had gathered at the Vanderbilt Cup and Earl C. Anthony of the Motor Car Company, who returned Sunday, after an eastern trip three months. "Every man in land drew down pay as a compensation that day, and there was hardly one of the whole course without one of them. Then never less than a rod bearings.

hundred yards apart there were two flags, to signal when a boat was coming. But they couldn't get the people back. The crowd just stood up when the car passed, and when the train after a pause, there was a narrow piled track in the middle of the road, and the people ran up to the edge of that all the time.

They say now that the first estimate of the crowd was too small, and that almost half a million people ran up to the edge of that track, and more than men where we were at the time. I don't know where they all came from or how they got there, but they were there, and they were on the track. The tail was simply frantic with excitement, and continually ran across the track in the path of the rushing cars.

The most people in New York got up with a car, and we went to get it. Automobiles were rented for the race at as high a rate as possible, and were hard to get at that time.

Then we went to a hotel, with lots of people carried out on the rear of their machines.

With a catch one man may certainly be proud of.

RAW FASTEST RUNNING.

We got up at 5 o'clock in the morning, and Lytle came for us in a racing car. We went up to a hotel, and the course near Bull's Head, and the North Hempstead Turnpike, one of the longest straightaways of the course. I tell you those don't slide up toward you as we went through the country road. They seem to leave the most of the time, and away side to side as they rush.

There wasn't any taking the corners, and the race was on, and that would have meant possible death to hundreds if the machine had sideslided, and the drivers dare to let them slip on the road.

Then we put on our brakes and took turns slowly, and then picked up as possible, shooting through in great shape.

Chris Wagner, the Darracot, and Christie's straightaway before the turn, and that was worth watching.

Christie's machine was a laboratory. The engine up all the time, and brass and copper.

There are two long pipes lead back to the radiator.

Of course you have heard a lot about the disqualification of the Potters, and the reason for this is that it really happened. A rear tire flew off, struck the change speed lever, and the clutch was disengaged.

Surgeon operation for piles is unnecessary and rarely a permanent success.

Here you can get a treatment that is quick, easy to apply and inexpensive, and free from the publicity and humiliation you suffer from doctors' examination.

Pyramid Pile Cure is made in the form of "easy to use" suppositories.

The promise of a cure is felt the moment you begin to use it, and your suffering ends.

Send your name and address at once to Pyramid Drug Co., 55 Pyramid Building, Marshall, Mich., and get by return mail, the treatment we will send you free, in plain, sealed wrap.

After seeing for yourself what it can do, you can get a regular, full-size package of Pyramid Pile Cure from any druggist at 50 cents each, or, on receipt of price, we will mail you same ourselves if he should not have it.

he thought it was one of the best cars to defend America, and he was willing to sacrifice glory to further America's chances.

But the Frayer-Miller people claimed for one of their cars the additional place if Haynes resigned, and Haynes refused to do so for the Pope. The attitude of the Frayer-Miller people has been severely criticized in the East.

There is one piece of news that explains the persistent rumors that Haynes would resign from the American team. His offer was that of a real sportsman.

After long vacances both C. E. Anthony and Earle C. Anthony are ready for fall business. Earle Anthony is all puffed up over new acquisition of a Packard. This has been finished in apple green, with a maroon running gear. Anthony insists it isn't a loud finish, but something quite simple and classic. The side panels will make about seventy-five miles an hour. Anthony is taken up with the new Pope-Toledo car, which he says, will surprise them all.

Every part is made of chrome steel, even the nuts, the valve cages (which screw in like the breech lock of a gun), the gears, of course, and the chains. Only the copper and the brass are not made of this steel, and real Hess-Brights are used everywhere except in the valve of them. Then never less than a rod bearings.

Ridgway's

Handsome Is as Handsome Does.

Abraham Lincoln was perhaps the homeliest man of his times. But when his countrymen discovered his great heart and brain they loved him, homeliness and all. The automobile which you expect to carry a big load in fast time across the continent must be and look vastly different from the one in which the ladies make afternoon calls, and by the same token it is not the society beauties but their less showy and altogether more companionable sisters who mother real men.

Ridgway's aims at service, not beauty. Its army is on the firing line and not on dress parade. A soiled uniform and a stubby beard inevitably follow forced marches. Ridgway's deliberately sacrifices appearance to speed. It is edited by telegraph and printed on swift newspaper presses. It takes four days to make a form ready on a magazine press. About four minutes—minutes, mind you—on a newspaper press. Ridgway's is printed from soft lead; Everybody's from sharp copper. Ridgway's is bound to look like the "Old Scratch." We make the sacrifice deliberately and cheerfully.

Now Why? The answer is short. To save time and to save money. A magazine press takes four days to make ready and turns out eight thousand in ten hours; a newspaper press takes four minutes to make ready and turns out eighteen thousand an hour. The live matter is timelier by six days because it is run on a newspaper press. The saving of time is not so great in cities where the editions are smaller. There is a saving of money in the swift newspaper presses over the slow magazine presses. We are obliged to save money in order to afford the enormous expense entailed by maintaining special staffs in all cities and by the extraordinary expenses of editing by telegraph. But we hope and believe that when we get into our stride you will be glad to make cheerful allowance for our typographical imperfections for the sake of the timeliness and vitality of what we shall be able to give you.

We trust you will not be overcritical of the contents of these early numbers. On page 47 of the October 18th issue you will find some of our experiences reviewed. Fourteen carloads of paper to 14 cities; a big staff recruited; 14 offices to equip; 14 sets of matrices to get through by express; fourteen cities bring out fourteen separate editions—and the whole accomplished in a little less than six weeks. Something of an achievement, "if we do say it as shouldn't." Why didn't we take longer to get ready? We appeal to your experience. The only way to learn to drive a motor car or to ride a bicycle is to get out into the middle of the road and get on. It beats shop talk a mile.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Bankrupt Contractor.

E. W. Doak, contractor and builder of Pasadena, filed an insolvency petition in the United States District Court yesterday. Doak has liabilities of about $3000, with assets amounting to practically nothing.

Temperance Women to Meet.

The Los Angeles Temperance Unions will hold an all-day meeting in Temperance Temple tomorrow. Among the features of the meeting will be a talk on "Scientific Temperance Instruction" by Mrs. M. Wiley of Illinois, in the afternoon.

Nearing the End.

John M. Griffith, who has been very sick for some time, has weakened slightly during the past day, and his attending physician fears that he will not live more than three days. At present he is unconscious, and the past few hours have shown a considerable drain on his little remaining strength.

Bequest for Bishop's Fund.

By the will of Mrs. George J. Keating, who died in England, a block of land for a parish house is given to St. Paul's Episcopal Church of San Diego, $10,000 is given the bishop's endowment fund in Los Angeles, and $1000 is given to the "George J. Keating Memorial Fund" for the extension of the Episcopal church in San Diego county.

Hoyle Family.

Mrs. Mary Martin, whose house was destroyed by fire last Sunday afternoon, stayed with a friend, the neighbor-hood of her former home. Her address can be ascertained by inquiry at the cottage next to the burned one—on Marion Street. The place is passed in the South Pasadena line at the junction of Pasadena Avenue and Avenue 32. Yesterday a number of persons expressed a desire to help her.

Jack Adams Seriously Injured.

Jack Adams, deputy under Constable J. H. de la Monte, was severely hurt by falling from an automobile. His recovery is uncertain. Saturday morning he rode downtown in an automobile. Attempting to get out, he struck a sharp corner. He was taken at once to his home and now lies in a very serious condition. Adams has been an excellent officer, a man of great energy and personal courage.

Mrs. Murphy Returns.

Mrs. Francis Murphy has returned to her home at Eighteenth street and Wilton Place, after a visit of two months with her father and mother at Frankfort, Austria. She will next week finish her trip to Pennsylvania, where he has been taking deep interest in the campaign of his son, Robert, who is candidate for Lieutenant-Governor. The Murphy meetings will reopen in Blanchard Hall on the evening of the first Sunday in November.

Boys' Entertainment.

"The King of Bongaloo" is the title of a comic operaette written by Edward C. H. H. and produced by the "Knights of Courage," the boys' fraternity of the Church of the Neighborhood. It will be produced in connection with a benefit, also to be made, at the Gaunt Club Auditorium on Friday evening, November 2. The entire club will take part in the entertainment and will be assisted by some of their friends, the object being to raise a summaizing for the boys at the Church of the Neighborhood, located at East Ninth and Wilson streets.

Anniversary With Displays.

A year ago the California Furniture Company opened its doors for business and yesterday celebrated its anniversary. The celebration consisted mainly of the display of beautiful things—there are no souvenirs and no bands. The designs are new and modern, and the decorations of the house furnish some of the best pieces, notably a set for an East Los Angeles house exhibited in the front window. There is a display of the latest in original designs in mahogany, the best ever shown in California, it is said. Sets in Circassian walnut and a large display of Chinese furniture also have a prominent place.

Civil Service Examinations.

The United States Civil Service Commissioners announce the following examinations to be held in this city on different dates between October 29 and November 14: Teacher (male) Indian Service; Interpreter, Syrian and Ruthenian; aid in zoology, National Museum; farmer with knowledge of irrigation, Indian Service; saddler and carver; topographer; topographic draftsman for Panama Canal; instrument maker for Coast and Geodetic Survey; special agent in the Bureau of Fisheries; Bureau of Corporations; gardener at Presidio, San Francisco; clerk and dispenser for Panama Canal; civil engineer; and workman. Further particulars may be had by applying to the office of Secretary F. C. Mulkey, room 23, main postoffice.

HAPPY DAY FOR GILLETT CAMPAIGN.

Enthusiastic Greetings from the "Old Boys" at the Soldiers' Home and a Magnificent Tribute at Pasadena for the Republican Nominees.

Receptions to the Republican candidate for Governor, at Soldiers' Home and Pasadena—enthusiastic greetings everywhere.

THE old boys in blue were all present or accounted for in the Memorial Hall at the Soldiers' Home, and when Gillett and Porter raised the Republican standard and called upon them to rally on the colors, the "vets" sized up the two stalwarts and found them to be the same type of men that they followed in the sixties and acknowledged as leaders. And the candidates found that they had known some of the old boys when they had first tried to meet them again. Warren Porter found some veterans who had lived in his neighborhood when he had a boy, and they were glad to meet him and talk over old times and call him by his boy name.

Officers of the home and a committee of the residents met the campaign party there, and when the visitors greeted the next Governor and his running mate, to the music of the Home Band, to Memorial Hall, which was crowded to the doors when the candidates arrived. General La Grange preceded the veterans, and touched the boys in blue to stand fast around the flag that never retreats. He spoke at some length on the railroad rate bill and the meat bill, in defense of the public weal enacted by Congress under the leadership of President Roosevelt, and exhorted his hearers to give their fullest support to the party of the President at the coming election.

Mr. Gillett paid a deserved tribute to the veterans for their great patriotic work in the preservation of the republic, reviewed briefly the achievements of the men in the Civil War, and the futility of its opponent to bring back the flag from across the Pacific, where it has been carried by the party of civilization and progress, and touched the boys in blue to stand fast around the flag that never retreats. He spoke at some length on the railroad rate bill and the meat bill, in defense of the public weal enacted by Congress under the leadership of President Roosevelt, and exhorted his hearers to give their fullest support to the party of the President at the coming election.

Warren R. Porter followed with a brief address, urging the veterans to persevere in support of the principles of the party, and to help roll up a majority for honest Jim Gillett of which Southern California may be proud.

W. H. Savage reminded his comrades of what the Republican party has done for them, in token of the gratitude of the country for their sacrifices, and asked the veterans to make good on their promise to the boys in blue.

Congressman McLachlan was called out of the audience by Gen. La Grange, who detected him sitting in the front row, and drafted him to make a speech. Mr. McLachlan dealt with Mr. Gillett's public services and his record, and challenged the Democratic party to meet their thesis against the Republican candidates by pointing to a single act or vote in his eight years of service in the Legislature, and in Congress, not in the interest of the people. He concluded with a hearty endorsement of the whole party ticket, State and county.

Contractor Cropper Is Gone,
Creditors Astir.

Sixty Thousand Dollars in Unfinished Work.

Building Clients and Supply
Men Affected.

A. O. Cropper, one of the "new" contractors in this city, has disappeared. At the same time it is discovered that there remains a total of $57,805 in contracts for new buildings unfinished and for which Cropper has accepted one or more payments.

Yesterday, when his disappearance became generally known, there was a rush of the owners of buildings Cropper was constructing to his offices in Room 32, and 32 Pay Building, Third and Hill streets.

In the hall in front of the closed doors the late owners raged and stormed and demanded Cropper's scalp. A scouting committee was sent for the janitor, who informed the waiting owners that no one had entered the rooms since Friday.

A few minutes later the crowd of owners had reached its maximum, an addition of half a dozen representatives of the large lumber and building material merchants appeared and were informed very definitely that the head of the recent Cropper. A delegation sent to the man's home at No. 331 Cornwall street, returned with the information that his wife had no knowledge of his whereabouts, and that he had been missing since Friday.

MONEY ON MANY CONTRACTS.
A canvass of the owners present produced the information that twenty-five contracts had been accepted by Cropper and that in all of them he had accepted one or more payments. In some of these he had not even made a payment to the material men, and in others he had paid a small portion of the material cost.

Cropper had been a resident of Los Angeles since 1895, and in April when he became a contractor. He had no capital to speak of but had a winning way which secured for him a considerable foothold among the contractors and lumber merchants. In April he established an office in the W. T. Johnson building. He had success and secured a number of contracts ranging from $3000 to $5000. He made a number of contracts for buildings for workmen. His contracts totaled up yesterday the following list:

LIST OF BUILDINGS.
Cristie M. Stanton, dwelling, West Arlington Heights, cost $3000.
Orlando Tolson, second street, cost $3000.
East Third-second street, cost $3000.
Louie R. Nicklin, Dorchester near Harvard, residence, cost $3000.
Shirley Thomas, dwelling, No. 1415 East Second street, cost $1400.
Louis Tamm, dwelling, corner of Romeo and Main streets, cost $1500.
Elizabeth H. Mennig, Roosevelt near Sixteenth, cottage, cost $3015.
John L. Johnson, Belmont near Washington, dwelling, $1575.
Eliza Dingwall, Twenty-second near La Salle, cottage, cost $1500.
Cristie M. Stanton, Fifth avenue near Washington street, dwelling, cost $2000.
Reba B. Bailey, Sunnyside Addition, cottage, cost $1960.
V. Koenig, residence, No. 1290 South Burleigh, cost $4000.
Same at same address, an addition to above, $4000.

R. G. Jones, dwelling, Fourth avenue near Washington, cost $2100.
Mrs. A. C. Johnson, dwelling, Thirtieth near Arlington, cost $1800.
Thomas Deering, corner of Fourth and State streets, dwelling, cost $3500.
Mrs. Reinboldt, residence, Ninth and Adams, cost $3500.
Elizabeth Mennig, Roosevelt near Sixteenth streets, residence, cost $2015.
Charlotte O. Trobbeck, No. 262 Kirby street, dwelling, cost $1600.
P. Garcelon, Glendale, dwelling, cost $1450.

Minnie M. Hertig, Dorchester near Harvard, residence, cost $3100.
Frank M. Hertig, same location at same residence, cost $3000.

Laura Schenck, No. 2781, West Eighth street, residence, $2500.
Same owner, same location, residence, cost $3500.

In addition to the above contracts which are recorded there are several not yet on file.

OWNERS AMONG LOSERS.
Of all the above Cropper had accepted money, and in some instances is said to have not paid for one board or brick that went into the structures.

The lumber and other building material merchants will collect what is due them from the owners of the structures, leaving the sum of money they claim for material not greater than what remains due the contractor had he completed his job.

Among the lumber and building material dealers there was little enthusiasm to tell of the populations of Cropper, especially with the exception of his particular firm. The Acme Door and Sash Company and F. O. Engstrum Contracting Company are two of the concerns which had representatives in the local office of Cropper. These concerns were furnishing the material for a house Cropper was building for Shirley Thomas at No. 1415 East Forty-second street. Mr. Thomas said last night that he will have to pay about $400 as his share of the Cropper debts.

Lulu B. Nicklin, who is putting up a house on Dorchester near Harvard, stated last night that she had no legal affairs in the hands of the bondholders for the contract, and that they will take care of Cropper. She paid Cropper $100 on a contract which came for a total of $2000.

Mrs. Anna Kinsel of Boyle Heights was also having a house built by Cropper, and found out yesterday that the contract had never been recorded, and she had to sue to have the payment made.

WIFE AND CHILDREN.

At Cropper's home yesterday his wife stated that she does not know where he is. She is a tall, thin, somber-looking lady, with large eyes and hard, toll-worn hands. She answered the questions asked her by a reporter in a listless manner. Her husband left home last Friday, and was seen walking the streets down town for some hours, and he never returned. About the woman were gathered several little children ranging from a few years old to a little girl of about 10. They all seem to have skirts, and looked with troubled eyes at her.

Cropper is described as having dark hair, being smooth shaven, rather stout, and of medium height.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Only two bids were received yesterday by the Board of Public Works to furnish the city with 30,000 barrels of oil, and the prices given indicate almost a 10 per cent. raise in price for crude to be delivered next spring and summer.

The City Council yesterday ordered the City Attorney to prepare an ordinance tending to increase public safety in the handling of electricity and street cars.

The City Council yesterday authorized the Board of Public Works to advertise for bids for the construction of an important chain in the storm drain system.

Ordinances for the improvement of sixty-five streets were passed yesterday by the City Council.

James Hale, a Saugus merchant, has gone, leaving a number of creditors. Behind his disappearance is a story of unfortunate hay speculation. C. N. Flosshimer, accused of embezzlement, Nogales, was released on habeas-corpus yesterday, the court holding that the indictment under which he was arrested is null and void.

Thirteen negroes, arrested on the 18th of the month by officers who raided a crap game on East Second street, cross-questioned witnesses in Justice Austin's court yesterday. Six of them were fined for gambling.

Police court yesterday developed the fact that the men advertising a practice of systematic thieving in the residence district. Two were brought up on petty larceny accusations.

AT THE CITY HALL.
PRICES ON OIL
NEARLY DOUBLED.

ONLY TWO BIDDERS QUOTE FOR WORKS BOARD.

Stiff Rises in Rates for Fluid to Be Delivered Next Spring and Summer Causes Pause—Safety Ordinance to Be Prepared by City Attorney.

Storm Drain Extensions.

Prices on oil supplies for the city are soaring high. The city is confronted with the proposition that it either must secure tankage and store oil at once for use during the ensuing year or it must expect to have to pay a largely increased price for this material later on. The indication is that the price will be about 100 per cent. over prices paid by the city at present.

Bids were opened yesterday morning by the Board of Public Works for supplying the city 30,000 barrels, more or less, of oil to be delivered from April to July of next year. Only two bids were received, and the award was postponed until tomorrow.

The oil market indicates a strong rise in the oil market. The fact that there were only two bidders also would seem to indicate that oil producers are not anxious to quote prices for delivery at present, and months in advance.

The John R. Ott company proposed to furnish the city 30,000 barrels of oil of not less than 55 per cent. asphalt to be delivered from April to July at a point within the city limits, at a rate of 95 cents per barrel of forty-two gallons each; and 5000 barrels of oil containing asphaltic material at a rate of 105 cents per barrel.

The C. A. Harris Oil Company offered to furnish the 30,000 barrels of oil of the first grade mentioned at a rate of 95 cents per barrel of forty-two gallons each; and 5000 barrels of oil containing asphaltic material at a rate of 105 cents per barrel.

The city at the present time is paying 15 to 20 cents per barrel for the oil in the market. A jump of prices to nearly double these figures causes the Board of Public Works to pause and inquire into conditions. It is the opinion of the board that it is secure storage and purchase oil at the prevailing rate at present, and thus avoid paying the high price asked for future.

The last contract made by the Board of Public Works for oil for street work was closed about two months ago. For that oil, but 20 cents per barrel, the city paid out this price as for delivery at the tanks. At that time Mrs. Emma Summers, the "Oil Queen," was before the board, and it was discovered that she was at the oil market at the time the price mentioned, for she was certain it would be unable to secure such figures at later date. Her prediction has come true.

PUBLIC SAFETY.

COUNCIL ORDERS ORDINANCE.

Public safety is to be the subject of an ordinance to be drafted by the City Attorney, through the authorization of the City Council. This action was taken yesterday afternoon. The resolution provides that the City Attorney be instructed to "propose an ordinance tending to increase public safety in handling of electricity and in the handling of street cars."

The motion was made by Councilman Houghton, who had previously attempted to secure action from the Council for providing an ordinance to create the position of "Inspector of Street Cars." His idea was to interest the Council, and which he wished incorporated in the proposed ordinance, included the placing of duplicate signs on all intersections, a provision that any vehicle weighing over one ton and used on the city's streets must have its brakes constructed of chrome steel, and that penalties be provided for all violations.

STORM-DRAIN PLANS.

LARGE DISTRICT PROJECTED.

Another move was made yesterday by the City Council toward providing the business district with an adequate system of storm-drain sewers. The Council adopted the report of the Board of Public Works, which makes the following provisions:

The construction of four catch-basins, the reconstruction of one catch-basin, the replacing of some drainage pipes for connecting it with the Sunset Park storm sewer at the intersection of Occidental boulevard and Hill street.

The construction of a storm sewer on Spring street, from Sixth street to Third street; the construction of a storm sewer on Broadway, from Spring street to Third street; the construction of a storm sewer on Olive street, from Sixth street to Fourth street; on Fourth street, from Olive to Grand avenue; on Grand avenue, from Spring street to Third street, and on Fifth street, from Olive street to Grand avenue. The City Council authorized the four resolutions necessary to be passed by the Board of Public Works to advertise for bids for the construction of this work.

Seventeenth-street Again.

Probably the largest delegation which has ever appeared before the Board of Public Works was that which assembled yesterday morning to discuss the proposed opening of West Seventeenth street, so as to make a thorough thoroughfare from Figueroa street to Vermont avenue.

The protestants were in the majority in this assemblage, although there were strong advocates of the enterprise present, headed by Miss Mary Roy, who has spent much of the summer in attempting to forward the project.

At many times the room became a perfect babel of voices as the discussions as to how many of the protestants would actually be within the assessment district. In case one is formed, the tax on the property of them actually would be the right to propose.

The board finally decided to take the matter under advisement, and to make a close examination of the petitioners and protestants. He said that he has a majority of the signers who would be included in an assessment district.

Many Street Ordinances.

The City Council yesterday passed sixty-five ordinances providing for street work. These streets were located in every section of the city, and the sum of the total proposed for yesterday's action alone ran into many thousands of dollars. The City Engineers' department is simply deluged with plans and statements which have been submitted to him to consider.

James Hale, a Saugus merchant, has gone, leaving a number of creditors. Behind his disappearance is a story of unfortunate hay speculation. C. N. Flosshimer, accused of embezzlement, Nogales, was released on habeas-corpus yesterday, the court holding that the indictment under which he was arrested is null and void.

Thirteen negroes, arrested on the 18th of the month by officers who raided a crap game on East Second street, cross-questioned witnesses in Justice Austin's court yesterday. Six of them were fined for gambling.

Police court yesterday developed the fact that the men advertising a practice of systematic thieving in the residence district. Two were brought up on petty larceny accusations.

Coronado Street Extension.

The Board of Public Works has recommended to the City Council the opening of 16th street, from Temple Road to Temple street, and the sum of the total proposed for yesterday's action alone ran into many thousands of dollars. The City Engineers' department is simply deluged with plans and statements which have been submitted to him to consider.

James Hale, a Saugus merchant, has gone, leaving a number of creditors.

Thirteen negroes, arrested on the 18th of the month by officers who raided a crap game on East Second street, cross-questioned witnesses in Justice Austin's court yesterday. Six of them were fined for gambling.

Probably the largest delegation which has ever appeared before the Board of Public Works was that which assembled yesterday morning to discuss the proposed opening of West Seventeenth street, so as to make a thorough thoroughfare from Figueroa street to Vermont avenue.

The protestants were in the majority and left Southern California on Friday. Saturday, the news leaked out, and yesterday the attachments began to be served. So far as they total about $1000. Hale's bond is supposed to be about $3000 and the assets are probably half that amount.

The defaulter groceryman may be brought back here to answer for his offenses. They feel particularly aggrieved because there were no witnesses to his conduct. Hale is saying that he was caught short by the drop in the price of hay, all that he had to do was to appear and he could have sold the car and his assets say that there would have stood by him; all the more so, as the hay market is bound to recover if the dry weather continues.

A man who worked in the grocery store and lived in the family of his employer is out $30 in wages. He maintains that Hale's domestic relations were perfectly happy.

The C. A. Harris Oil Company offered to furnish the 30,000 barrels of oil of the first grade mentioned at a rate of 95 cents per barrel of forty-two gallons each; and 5000 barrels of oil containing asphaltic material at a rate of 105 cents per barrel.

The city at the present time is paying 15 to 20 cents per barrel for the oil in the market. A jump of prices to nearly double these figures causes the Board of Public Works to pause and inquire into conditions. It is the opinion of the board that it is secure storage and purchase oil at the prevailing rate at present, and thus avoid paying the high price asked for future.

The last contract made by the Board of Public Works for oil for street work was closed about two months ago. For that oil, but 20 cents per barrel, the city paid out this price as for delivery at the tanks. At that time Mrs. Emma Summers, the "Oil Queen," was before the board, and it was discovered that she was at the oil market at the time the price mentioned, for she was certain it would be unable to secure such figures at later date. Her prediction has come true.

PUBLIC SAFETY.

COUNCIL ORDERS ORDINANCE.

Public safety is to be the subject of an ordinance to be drafted by the City Attorney, through the authorization of the City Council. This action was taken yesterday afternoon. The resolution provides that the City Attorney be instructed to "propose an ordinance tending to increase public safety in handling of electricity and in the handling of street cars."

The motion was made by Councilman Houghton, who had previously attempted to secure action from the Council for providing an ordinance to create the position of "Inspector of Street Cars." His idea was to interest the Council, and which he wished incorporated in the proposed ordinance, included the placing of duplicate signs on all intersections, a provision that any vehicle weighing over one ton and used on the city's streets must have its brakes constructed of chrome steel, and that penalties be provided for all violations.

STORM-DRAIN PLANS.

LARGE DISTRICT PROJECTED.

Another move was made yesterday by the City Council toward providing the business district with an adequate system of storm-drain sewers. The Council adopted the report of the Board of Public Works, which makes the following provisions:

The construction of four catch-basins, the reconstruction of one catch-basin, the replacing of some drainage pipes for connecting it with the Sunset Park storm sewer at the intersection of Occidental boulevard and Hill street.

The construction of a storm sewer on Spring street, from Sixth street to Third street; the construction of a storm sewer on Broadway, from Spring street to Third street; the construction of a storm sewer on Olive street, from Sixth street to Fourth street; on Fourth street, from Olive to Grand avenue; on Grand avenue, from Spring street to Third street, and on Fifth street, from Olive street to Grand avenue. The City Council authorized the four resolutions necessary to be passed by the Board of Public Works to advertise for bids for the construction of this work.

Seventeenth-street Again.

Probably the largest delegation which has ever appeared before the Board of Public Works was that which assembled yesterday morning to discuss the proposed opening of West Seventeenth street, so as to make a thorough thoroughfare from Figueroa street to Vermont avenue.

The protestants were in the majority

NEARLY A MILLION WILL BE VOTED ON.

HAVE you an extra $300,000 in your clothes? The county would like to borrow it. The first preliminary hearing was gone through yesterday toward the voting of bonds for this amount. The Board of Supervisors passed the necessary ordinance and the election will be advertised. It will be a special bond election. The proposed bonds to be voted on or against on that occasion are:

For the purchase of the property next to the Courthouse, and the erection of a hall of records thereon—$300,000.

Improvements to the County Hospital—$300,000.

Improvements to the County Jail—$300,000.

Improvement of a Juvenile Detention Home—$40,000.

FIGHTY MEET
ABOUT WRECK.Brooklyn Heights People
Censure Railroad.Sending Committee to See
City Council.Verdict of Coroner's Jury
Says Nothing.

Citizens of the Ninth Ward assembled in a tumultuous mass meeting, and adopted resolutions denouncing the Pacific Electric Railway Company, the City Council, and particularly Councilman Blanchard of the Ninth Ward, for inefficient service to the public and charging them with responsibility for the Brooklyn-avenue street-car accident on Saturday morning, which caused the death of W. A. Barrett, but the Henry Frey.

The Coroner's jury at an inquest over the body of Barrett, found, in a non-committal verdict, that he came to his death "by being mangled under a car of the Pacific Electric Railway Company." No blame was attached to any one, but the accident was declared a just judgment on the matter of safety and injuries up to the courts.

The jury recommends: "That all electric railway companies entering Los Angeles be required to cause each regular or inspector of cars or an inspector of cars, to render his own signature in ink, the amount of any repairing done to any car, and the amount of repair, and that all inspectors shall certify to his inspection in like manner."

Witnesses of the wreck who were put on to stand to testify in the inquest were: Seymour Condon, an in-witness; W. A. Harding, inspector of mechanical construction for the suburban Railway Company; H. Z. Johnson, manager of the Wreckers and Rolla P. Umstead, one of the fifteen passengers who were riding in the outside forward portion of the car. No other witnesses of the wreck were present.

PERSONALITIES FREQUENT.

Socialistic radicalism and conservative cool-headedness battled and ranged for control at the meeting.

No. 149 Brooklyn avenue, called the King's Highway Improvement Association, and its satellites are indubitably in by John Murray, a leader of the Socialistic party, and his in-laws; conservative speakers were himself and joined the meeting, confirming by a vote of motions, amendments, and counter-motions, and the hall was kept in turmoil.

A speaker called C. H. Clayton, chairman of the meeting, a bar, was struck in the face and pushed from the room, and the speaker, who had been shouting against the members of the railroads, the City Council and Councilman Blanchard, to a roar of applause.

The speaker, who was the author of the motion to call a meeting, came in with a resolution proposed by John Murray, but voted down by the mass meeting. It read as follows:

Whereas, the lives of citizens of the Ninth Ward have been wantonly sacrificed by the members of a railway corporation, who have made no effort of maintenance, a death-dealing curse their right of way; and whereas, no other railway corporation controls the Los Angeles City Council, and especially the Councilman on this ward, who has failed to comprehend the importance of the work for the protection of the lives and limbs of our citizens; and whereas, a proof of the fact that the Ninth Ward Councilman is a wailing-ton of Humanity, rather than a man given to the people by his recent attempt to deliver a river-bed franchise to the same grasping corporation, one dollar of compensation.

Therefore be it resolved, that the citizens of the Ninth Ward, in the meeting assembled do hereby demand that such ordinances be enacted as will immediately give the people control over our street-car systems, regulating their rates of speed, enforcing the use of the most safety devices, and finally, ultimately the city of Los Angeles will control and operate its own street-car systems.

CALMNESS URGED.

When this resolution was read, after an introductory remarks by the chairman, in which he told the people assembled to use "calmness" and without indulging in personalities, to end that way and means might be devised to avoid accidents in the future, it was received with deafening applause, the sound to foretell unanimous adoption.

and of masterful demeanor, calmed the belligerents and delivered a sermon "fair play" that quieted the enemies and won the force of the meeting towards conservative action.

Some one then suggested that half the people who had come to attend the meeting were from Brooklyn, and that an outside session would bring a better expression from all the people interested.

The hall was emptier, the audience for the ensuing hour, gradually faded from the steps of a side entrance.

Murray's original motion was voted down, and when Chairman Clayton moved to adjourn, Murray rose and rayed, "You're a bar." Clayton struck him and knocked him from the stand.

Finally Chairman Clayton was empowered by the meeting to appoint a committee of nine to wait upon the City Council and the railroad companies to find out what action could be taken in the interests of the Brooklyn avenue hill.

On the committee are Samuel Rees, R. E. Wirsching, J. W. Schell, John Neffroy, W. C. George, George Cook and Daniel Daniels.

The committee was instructed to carry to the Council a resolution showing the sense of the meeting, it read as follows:

"Resolved: That this mass meeting condemns the negligences of the railroad company and the City Council in their respective capacities of the Ninth Ward, for not protecting the lives of citizens of the Ninth Ward in their travel upon the Brooklyn avenue street railway.

At THE REQUEST:

There was a small attendance at the inquest, which was held at Pierce Bros' undertaking establishment at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. John H. Foley was present in the interest of the widow of Freytag and W. P. Hayes, representing the Councilman of the Ninth Ward, for not protecting the lives of citizens of the Ninth Ward in their travel upon the Brooklyn avenue street railway.

The attorney for the company, Mr. Barrett, said that the company was brought against the company by both parties. The attorney interrogated all the witnesses and insisted that Mrs. Freytag be placed on the stand, although she was not a witness of the wreck and was a broken-hearted spectator at the inquest.

Mrs. Freytag, of 344 Walsh avenue, was the first witness called and identified the car as the remains of his son, Wallace Arnold Barnes, who was born in Ohio and was 22 years old. The father, known as Mr. Barnes, was a carpenter, and the accident, except by hearing.

Seymour London, an editorial writer for "The Pasadena News," who lives on Boyle Heights, testified minutely in regard to the accident.

A speaker called C. H. Clayton, chairman of the meeting, a bar, was struck in the face and pushed from the room, and the speaker, who had been shouting against the members of the railroads, the City Council and Councilman Blanchard, to a roar of applause.

AUTUMNAL CATARRH

Diseases Prevalent Now. Hyomei
Will Cure it Quickly.

A great many people suffer more with catarrh during the fall months than at any other season of the year, as changes in weather seem to have a bad effect upon the disease.

At the first warning of catarrh, one should begin the use of Hyomei. A few days' treatment will often prevent a severe attack of this distressing and annoying disease.

There is no stomach dosing with Hyomei. It cures catarrh by the simple and natural method of breathing medicated air into the nose, throat and lungs, in this way killing the germs of catarrhal poison, healing and soothing the irritated mucous membrane and entering the blood with the oxygen, thus driving all catarrhal germs from the system.

If you have any of the ordinary catarrh symptoms, such as offensive breath, hoarseness, sore throat, coughing, sneezing, mucous discharge, breathing, sneezing, huskiness, discharge from the nose, droppings in the throat, coughing spasms, etc., begin the use of Hyomei at once.

A complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00, extra bottles 50c, and your money will be refunded unless it cures.

Write us for symptoms blank and one of the best catarrh specialists will give you without charge personal advice and whatever prescriptions you may need. Our druggists are authorized to sell Hyomei. If you do not find it to give satisfaction, but if your druggist will not refund, return the empty package and inhaler to us and we will comply with guarantee. The R. T. Booth Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

prohibits railroads from engaging in any but the regular business of carrying passengers and merchandise from one place to another. The bill was introduced by Senator Flint, who is president of the railway companies. Mr. Flint added, "will be open to inspection by the Interstate Commerce Commission, and false entries will be punishable by heavy fines."

A saying of the Senator's which scored with the club women was this: "The women's clubs have done more to get the pure food bill up than any other State from the national law. We who have the real fruit of the situation should be given agency." Mr. Flint advised that women work for the passage of a State pure food bill, modeled after the national bill, "as far as California is concerned."

Another bill most interesting to the club members, and which was dealt with by Mr. Flint, was the consumer protection bill, which he predicted to predict that the time is not far distant when we shall have the most efficient consumer service in the world.

Another bill, the most interesting, subject to which upon Mr. Flint's advice, has been taken to declare the Niagara River an international highway, the amount of water taken therefrom to be regulated by a joint commission of the United States and Great Britain.

The speaker briefly referred to the bill concerning public lands, one feature of which is the bill to extend the grid lines of the West and to encourage purchases, and to the forestry question, also of especial interest to California.

When Senator Flint concluded his address, the women wished to ask questions. They persuaded him to give his ideas of the next session of Congress.

"I think that some kind of a bill prohibiting child labor will be passed," said he, "and that there will probably be a bill introduced to limit the accumulation of enormous fortunes."

A treaty with Santo Domingo the speaker mentioned as among the possibilities of the next session.

In reply to a question, the Senator said that he was entirely opposed to the reciprocity bill, because if free trade relations followed it would mean almost the annihilation of the citrus industries of California.

At the conclusion of Senator Flint's address, a club member gave him a vote of thanks. A delegation was sent to the tea room where Senator and Mrs. Flint, Mrs. Danakin, Mme. Caroline Severance and the club's president, Mrs. Philip Gengembre, held an informal reception.

Will Offer Courses of Twelve Lectures on Russian Literature.

In connection with the university extension department of the University of California, a course of lectures will be given in Southern California this late of Yale, President Martineau Clapp, late of Yale, is a lecturer on Russian literature. The course that he offers is entitled "The Prose Literature of Russia in Novel and Short Story."

The course will be given at several points in the south of Los Angeles. The lectures will occur at the Polytechnic High School at 3 o'clock in the evening, on the following dates, all December, October 26, November 13 and 26, December 7, January 10, 1906, February 11, 18 and 25, March 11 and 25, and April 1. A class will be formed to work under the direction of Mr. Clapp in connection with the lectures, a session of which will be given after themselves and those who pass the examination will receive a credit of two units at the University of California. A library of the books referred to in the course will be given to the Polytechnic High School library by the university extension department. Information about the course and the price of tickets can be had of Joseph P. Loeb, No. 432 Wilcox Building.

The course consists of twelve lectures, and although they will be given mainly with literature, they will give a general account of the conditions of the day.

The other lectures are on the social and political aspects. There are given to the greatest of the Russian prose writers, Ivan Turgenev, who did more than any other man to bring about the emancipation of the serfs; two to Tolstoy, and the remainder to various authors, from Pushkin to Maxim Gorky.

THIEF PUTS UP A FIGHT.

John Andrews was arrested by Patrolman Humphries after a fierce fight at Main and Second streets.

He was on the chair of having stolen a pair of trousers from the store of John Wolfe, at No. 108 North Main street, and sold them at a store at No. 110 South Los Angeles street.

Andrews, in the office of Wolfe, noted his loss, and Andrews had been in the store. He sent one of his clerks to play detective. The clerk located Andrews in the Los Angeles street store, but Andrews ran away from him. Humphries saw Andrews running and stopped him. The police say they will file a charge of prior petty larceny against Andrews.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

RAAB COMPANY MAY PAY FEES.

PASADENA CONCERN IS LIKELY TO SURRENDER TO CITY.

Creamery Corporation Makes Application Which Seems to Point to Desire of Officials to Avoid Litigation—Board of Fire Commissioners Hold Important Meeting.

Office of The Times, No. 38 Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, Oct. 15.—The Raab Creamery Company officials have made application to have transferred to them a number of license for cows now held by the San Gabriel Creamery Company. The petition was filed Saturday and the Council will act on the matter tomorrow at the regular meeting. The action of the Raab Company lends color to the belief that the officials of the concern will shortly capitulate and that all need of litigation for the purpose of collecting the disputed license fees will be averted.

When asked if the company would pay a lump sum to cover all cows which they might use in serving Pasadena with milk was refused. It was announced that the company would not give up the cows until a certain date to comply with the ordinance, being informed that prosecution would follow in the event that they failed to comply. At 12 o'clock in the last few days a representative of the company appeared at the City Hall and paid fees on a number of cows.

As far as a portion of the fees were paid, it was necessary for the city authorities, before they could be in prosecution, to secure evidence that milk from other than licensed cows was being sold. They were under restraint. She was ordered committed to the County Hospital until the Insanity Commission will have opportunity to examine her.

GETTING JURY FOR HERR.

The case of Frank Herr, charged with cruelty to animals, was called before Justice Klamthorn this morning in the city courtroom. The day was taken up in selecting a jury and when the court adjourned the panel was still incomplete. Herr is charged with having dragged a horse by the neck so cruelly that it had to be killed. At the first trial the jury was unable to agree and was discharged.

NIMROD OUT IN FORCE.

There was a large exodus of Pasadena sportsmen to the hills this morning for the first day's quail shooting. Every eager nimrod who could get away from his business packed up his gun and started for the hills. Most of the shooting territory north of the hills had been secured and is now under restraint in the form of "No shooting" signs are displayed everywhere, so sportsmen were forced to go farther from home in search of game.

HONOR ACED WOMAN.

Mrs. L. B. Kerr of No. 88 North Raymond avenue, a native of the town of the birthplace of her mother, Mrs. Jacob Bacon, who has reached her ninety-second year. For the decorations in the drawing-room were remade and the tables rearranged and turned the tables were a centerpiece a large vase of the same spicily blossoms. Mrs. Walter Gillette presided over the tea cups. Mrs. Kerr was assisted in receiving by Mrs. John Blair, Mrs. Bacon, her son, and her daughter. She has fourteen grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. She received letters today from all of them. The baby grandchild, who could not write, was present. Mrs. Kerr has been a resident of Gillette for twelve years and for the past six years has made her home in this city.

PASADENA SOCIETY NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Knight of No. 322 North Raymond avenue have this evening announced the birth of their first child for the winter. Mrs. Knight's mother, sister and brother, Mrs. E. Knight, Mrs. Emily Conard and Robert S. Knight, all of Pasadena.

This evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. E. Schenckhorn, No. 200 Wilshire avenue, Miss Jenny and Marion, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Green, have returned from Idylwild, where they spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Marsh of No. 250 South Euclid avenue turned out from an extended trip through England and Scotland.

Miss Laura Swigart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Swigart of Alta, is leaving for France and Germany, where she will join her sister, Miss Theresa Swigart, and they will spend the coming year studying abroad.

Mr. T. W. Phillips, who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. D. W. Coogler, of No. 404 South Mentor avenue, for several weeks, left for San Fran on Sunday, and in the afternoon the negroes were dismissed by Recorder Hart this morning.

FAKER'S QUAKE DOESN'T SHAKE.

SO HE TELLS FOOLISH MOLOKANE TO FAST AGAIN.

Beziff Announces Destruction of Los Angeles is Postponed—His Hungry People Breathe Sigh of Relief, But Must Take Up Their Belts Another Notch or Two.

Earthquakes failed him. There was no bolt of a clear sky to establish his prediction. Yesterday passed without a tremor of the earth's crust, and "Prophet" Beziff of the Molokane was discredited.

Though hundreds of the faithful were prepared to leave the city early yesterday morning, the trek was forbidden by Beziff himself, who tragically announced that the destruction of Los Angeles had been postponed.

Molokane, with having terrorized the simple credulity, "Fugue," the faker sent word to his people, before sunrise, that a respite had been given the "wicked city." He could not tell them how many days of grace had been granted.

The air-bubbles of fame he turned down about himself were punctured by the jaws of a diagnosed crowd.

Beside himself went into hiding shortly before the sun went down, and the bolt of a clear sky was the last word to his people was a command for another three days' fast. The Molokane feasted last night, after three days without food, and those who still have faith in Beziff must now abstain from food again for another period.

The old man's idea of the wickedness of Los Angeles was gleaned by a half day spent in Justice Chamberlain's court, when he saw about fifty "drunks" and others up for judgment.

Among the greatest of grinding sins was the elder son of Beziff, who had jumped into a peck of trouble by fighting for the heart of a pretty Molokane maiden.

There were few among the Russians who worked yesterday. Boarded men hung around the street corners, waiting for they knew not what. They did not hold a meeting. There was no great public meeting.

Little children, who have taken part in the orgies practiced in the name of religion at the Stimson-La Fayette hotel, were about the gaudy saloons inquisitively, wistfully of their parents and others as to when the march was to begin. Many were disappointed when they learned that there would be no march.

Anxious for any change that would bring excitement to their dull lives, the Molokane have taken hold of the celebration of the Feast of Tabernacles, with other people, and the Molokane have followed the teachings of the Meissa law to the letter, and have even added to the ceremonial pre-arrangements.

Under the impression that they are abstaining for their sins, and that the observation of the feasts and fasts are more essential than anything else can come on earth into their lives, they have given themselves over to their peculiar rites.

As a result of the fast days, the little bakeries in Russian town, which the Molokane have taken over, are stocked with stale bread, pies and cakes, which the devout, though hungry, Fugue will not touch.

This holiday spirit is working havoc among the colonists, who are becoming demoralized. The usual quiet of the streets is disturbed, night and day, by meetings held in private houses, saloons or gaudy saloons, have been broken up by the police.

Heads of families, who formerly worked to supply their children with food, have given up all means of support. What they are going to do when rest day comes around is a pertinent question.

Rabbi David W. Hartoff, a rabbi of workers who are striving to help the Russians, are concerned because of the influence the religious leaders are exerting to abridge the people's rights.

There are many among the more enlightened of the Molokane who have upon the observances of feast and fast days to the neglect of other and more vital duties.

ALL SERENE AT COLLEGE.

Medical Juniors in Their Places Yesterday and the Dean Laughs at Their Desires.

The obstreperous juniors of the College of Physicians and Surgeons were in their places yesterday, as gentle as evening doves.

They seemed to think it a great joke that they deserted on Saturday afternoon and threatened to repeat the trick unless the faculty gets together and cuts out the work on Saturday afternoons.

Dean Bryson was asked whether they had had a meeting of the directors to consider the complaint of the juniors that the work is unnecessarily heavy.

"Oh, no," he said, "and there will be none; there's nothing to do but a thing. Saturday afternoons will not be cut out and the school will go on just the same."

"The boys were all present in a good humor and I think I will see them next Saturday. They have been kicking a little about the work, but we've got to do it, in order to cover the ground. We are trying to make this a high-class school and they'll simply have to take the work, that's all."

They failed to appear on Saturday afternoon, but it was just a college holiday, so the president gave them a half-holiday, and we were to be driven into giving a weaker course in medicine if the whole school walks out. Any boy expecting to graduate from this college must make up his mind to either get in line and drill or get out."

In fact, it was learned from one of their number last night that the juniors had all gone to bed, and "they'll be back all back reciting their sins of Saturday by a unanimous vote, and expressing their confidence in the ability of Dean Bryson to correct the difficulties."

"The boys are not increased against the faculty," declared this young man last night, "and they simply passed the resolution in their meeting, and Dean Bryson is probably right in his suggestion that 'the boys wanted to go to the ball game.'"

The whole affair is apparently some thing of a "campus" in these days, and Dean Bryson is probably right in his suggestion that "the boys wanted to go to the ball game."

The switches are in many of the very rare shades, but the particular leader is a line of switches and Jaynes in shades of brown and drab, also gray and are good values at $4.00.

THIS IS "MEMORABLE TUESDAY" AND OUR TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY as a mercantile establishment. Just a year ago we broke ground for the new store which is now being erected for us at 8th and Broadway, and which, when completed, will be the greatest mercantile establishment west of Chicago. Hamburger's do nothing by halves, but in every instance, in every effort they undertake, they eclipse all competition. Yesterday's business was much greater than our most sanguine expectations had prompted us to look for, but when such values are given an appreciative public that has perfect confidence in us are generous with

New Tailored
Gowns

It is now high time to make your selection of a gown and you will not find as large assortments or as much variety elsewhere as here. Every day since the opening of the season has brought in some new lines of merchandise until now we have every style of garment that is sanctioned by Dame Fashion and the prices range as low as it is possible for good suits to be sold up to the most exclusive lines equal to any that a dressmaker could produce to your individual order at one-half more. Exclusiveness is the specialty of all these garments; they are in all the new shades and prices range

BREWING TROUBLE.

"Lavender Lady to Ask Divorce.

Millionaire W. J. Lemp to Home to Save His Child's Peace of Mind.

Wife Had Him on the Hot With Her Temper, Say Intimate Friends.

Beautiful Woman and a Lushish Entertainer, but Servants Won't Stay.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES] S. LOUIS, Oct. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William J. Lemp, millionaire head of the South Brewing Company, and his beautiful wife, "The Lavender Lady," have separated, and it is understood divorce proceedings will be begun immediately by Mrs. Lemp on the grounds of incompatibility.

Lemp left his wife in undisputed possession of the beautiful South Side home, and has taken up his residence at the Washington Hotel, where his brother has room. The 6-year-old son is with his mother.

Mrs. Lemp, who was, before her marriage, Miss Lillian Handlan, daughter of A. H. Handlan of the Handlan-Buck Manufacturing Company, acquired her title of "The Lavender Lady" by virtue of her penchant for wearing stunning gowns in which lavender sounded the dominant color.
